Psalm 9:2 ESV

I will be glad and exult in you; I will sing praise to your name, O Most High.

The Late Theologian R. C. Sproul once said this: “The worship to which we are called in our renewed state is far too important to be left to personal preferences, to whims, or to marketing strategies. It is the pleasing of God that is at the heart of worship. Therefore, our worship must be informed at every point by the Word of God as we seek God’s own instructions for worship that is pleasing to Him.”

We should always praise the Lord, and we should always rejoice in the Lord because of the importance of worship! Worship is important, and worship is like food because it gives us the necessary spiritual nutrients to keep us strong, to keep us energized, and to keep us from falling apart! Worship is always giving us a reminder that the Lord is always there for us, and the Lord is always going to make sure that we stay together because we follow and submit to the Lord!

As we continue to trust in the Lord and worship the Lord, remember why you are praising the Lord! Remember the importance of praising the Lord, and remember why we are praising God, because of His splendor, our relationship with the Lord, and our love for the Lord! The love and relationship that we have with the Lord make us worship Him, and we worship Him due to our desire for Him because the more you desire the Lord, and the more you want the Lord it will be expressed through your worship for the Lord!

Worship to God is the light that will always brighten up your spirit!
