Psalm 119:164 ESV

Seven times a day I praise you for your righteous rules.

The Late Dr. Martin Luther King Jr once said this: “I may not be the man I want to be; I may not be the man I ought to be; I may not be the man I could be; I may not be the man I truly can be; but praise God, I’m not the man I once was.”

Praising God is a blessed thing to do, and it is important for us to not forget to praise the Lord because when we know how great the Lord is, when we know how wonderful the Lord is and because of that it is good to praise the Lord. Praising the Lord has no limits, praising the Lord has no obstacles, and praising the Lord will make you feel good because we know that when we praise God we have joy. We have joy, and we have life because of the Lord, and when you know that the Lord is keeping you it will make you thankful and never stop praising the Lord.

We should never stop praising the Lord and you know that when you know the word of God, and when you have a powerful relationship with the Lord then praise doesn’t have any limits to you! When you praise the Lord you have no limits, and you understand that when you are praising the Lord that you know that there will not be any restraint! When I know that the Lord is giving me life, giving me hope, and giving me what I need I will always make noise because I know that the Lord will always make sure that I’m good!

The Lord is good, the Lord is wonderful, the Lord is great, and the Lord is never leaving us, and because of His presence our praise should never stop! Praise should never stop, praise should never have limits, and praise should always be enjoyable when we enjoy the Lord! That is the fruit of praise to enjoy the Lord, and enjoy where you are and how the Lord has kept you, and how the Lord stays with us we should never stop giving the Lord because we know He is worth it all!
