Psalm 96:3 ESV

Declare his glory among the nations, his marvelous works among all the peoples!

Theologian D. A. Carson once said this: "Worship is the proper response of all moral, sentient beings to God, ascribing all honor and worth to their Creator-God precisely because he is worthy, delightfully so."

When we worship the Lord, and when we praise the Lord it is a special connection, and it is a special relationship that comes from the person that is giving expressions to God. We express ourselves in various ways, whether we hit a leg on furniture, winning a fun game, or purchasing a new car! We always express ourselves, in various forms and capacities!

Expressing ourselves means much to us, and when we look at our lives through the lens of our own experiences and expressions we should never give the Lord anything that isn't spectacular in praise! When we know that the Lord is with us, and because the Lord is with us we have to always give the Lord our best praise, and our best worship because praising God is a connection that can't be snatched out or cut because of our trust in Him! My trust in the Lord is what makes my praise continue to go forward and live, and as much as I live I have so much to praise the Lord for!

Never be quiet in talking about the Lord, because we should always remember that the power of the Lord, the love of the Lord, and the exuberance of God makes us want to always praise Him! We are praising the Lord because of the fact, that God means much to us, and because of His relationship with us it will make us worship! Give the Lord the praise, and when we worship the Lord we are encouraged and we are never without a reason to praise Him!
